

1991

“Improvisation and Rhythm in Folk Music”

Seminars, Participants, Performances:

G. Papadakis

Alkis Raptis

Caty Karekla and prominent artists of Greek folk music

Spyros Vrachoritis and the Theatre Club of Volos presented excerpts from the works of Greek authors, with improvised musical accompaniment, in conjunction with theatrical improvisations on the text by the actors

“Villa de Madrid” The Spanish folk dance group demonstrated the relationship between spontaneity and rhythm, as applied to flamenco

“Improvisation in Classical Music”

Symposium, Participants:

Youth Symphony Orchestra from the Tchaikovsky Conservatory of Moscow, St.Petersburgh and Armenia under the direction of Odysseus Dimitriades

Victor Vassiliades with his string quartet

Vladimir Skanavis, pianist and professor at the Tchaikovsky Conservatory of Music

Private lessons were given by Vladimir Skanavis, George Hadjinikos, Victor Vassiliades, Einar Johannessen, Paul Galbraith

Concerts:

Mozart: ‘Figaro’ Overture, ‘Halleluiah’ for Soprano, Symphony No.40, Dimitriadis:
Canzonetta, Grieg: Peer Gynt Suite No.1, conductor: Odysseus Dimitriadis

Händel: Water Music, Mozart: Clarinet Concerto, Beethoven: Symphony No.4.
soloist: E. Johannessen, conductor: G. Hadjinikos

Beethoven: Leonora Overture No.3, Schubert: Symphony No.8 "Unfinished", Ives: The Unanswered Question, Mozart: Symphony No.41 "Jupiter" conductor: George Hadjinikos, conductor's assistant: Janis Grapsas

Guitar Recital by Paul Galbraith

Quartet and solo concerts by participants of the seminar

