

2017

Event

“Ein deutsches Requiem”

Saturday 05/08/17 @ 21:00 - The Open Air Theatre, Horto

Ein deutsches Requiem, Op. 45, Johannes Brahms

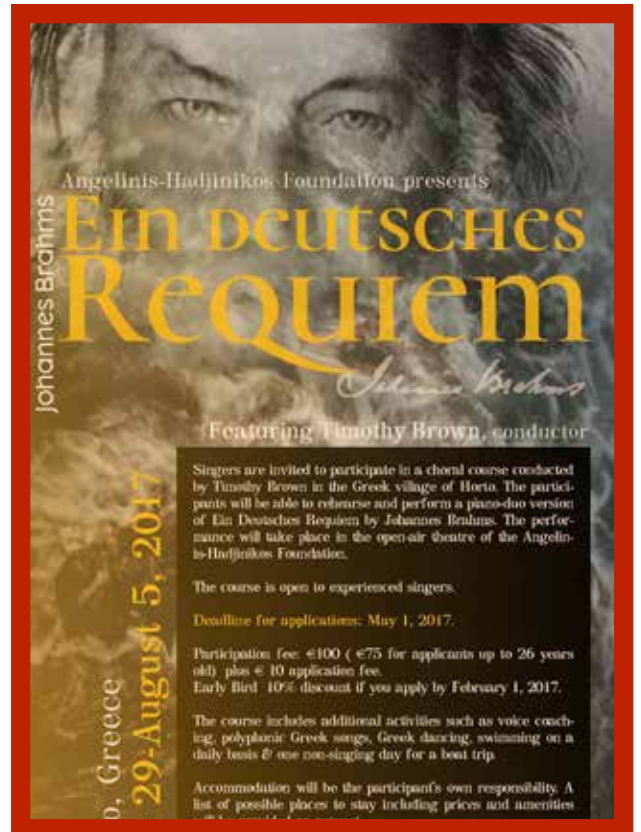

Timothy Brown, conductor

Chorus of participants of Horto seminars (29/07 - 05/08)

Sophia Kyanidou, soprano

Angelos Chondrogiannis, baritone

Emis Tsiouras, Dimitris Dimopoulos, piano-4 hands

Angellinis-Hadjinikos Foundation presents

Ein deutsches Requiem

Johannes Brahms

Featuring Timothy Brown, conductor

Singers are invited to participate in a choral course conducted by Timothy Brown in the Greek village of Horto. The participants will be able to rehearse and perform a piano-duo version of Ein Deutsches Requiem by Johannes Brahms. The performance will take place in the open-air theatre of the Angellinis-Hadjinikos Foundation.

The course is open to experienced singers.

Deadline for applications: May 1, 2017.

Participation fee: €100 (€75 for applicants up to 26 years old) plus €10 application fee.
Early bird: 10% discount if you apply by February 1, 2017.

The course includes additional activities such as voice coaching, polyphonic Greek songs, Greek dancing, swimming on a daily basis & one non-singing day for a boat trip.

Accommodation will be the participant's own responsibility. A list of possible places to stay including prices and amenities

0, Greece
29-August 5, 2017